

From the Desk of Mrs. Jester

January 10, 2018

FRIDAY, JANUARY 12: Dismissal on Friday will take place at 12noon. No Central Bucks buses will be available. CARES will be open if sufficient numbers register.

HOME AND SCHOOL ASSOCIATION:

- Our HSA meeting will be held next Wednesday evening beginning at 7pm in the parish meeting room. The HSA heard that Thursday night is not always a good one for some parents – so our meeting is on Wednesday. We changed the venue to give the meeting a different flavor. Our speaker is Ms. Alissa DeVito, Technology Coach of the Archdiocese. Alissa will speak about parenting the age of social media.
- See the Home and School Newsletter for more exciting news.

SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION: We hold in prayer the following children who will receive the sacrament of Reconciliation tonight at St. Joseph church: Sean Panepresso, Matthew Shaeffer and Avalon Waltrich.

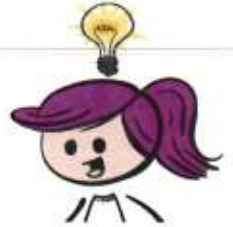

KELLY'S CLASSROOM!: What a wonderful experience! Bob Kelly got a taste of SJR hospitality today with cheers, smiles, and signs. We hope our families will enjoy the pictures posted on our school Facebook page.

BINGO BONANZA: Hurry, Hurry Hurry!!!! Only 70 tickets left for this fun night. Don't wait or you will be too late! See flyer in this week's communication.

FLY, EAGLES, FLY! : To get into the spirit of the weekend, everyone will have an Eagle dress down day on Friday. (I told the children that they will have an Eagles dress down day every Friday – as long as the Eagles continue in the playoffs!)

JUST A THOUGHT: “Forgiveness is not an occasional act; it is a constant attitude.” This quote from Dr. Martin Luther King gives me an idea about how to make our day on Monday one of service. Who did I need to forgive? From whom should I ask forgiveness?
