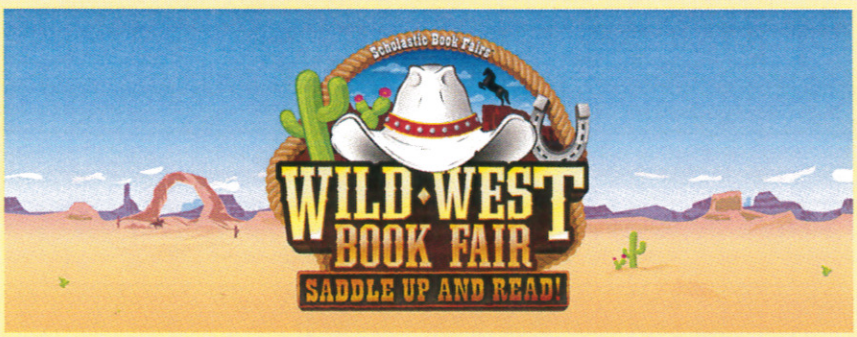
Catholic Schools Week: Showing Our School Pride

The theme for CSW 2018 is "Catholic Schools: Learn. Serve. Lead. Succeed." CSW is a wonderful opportunity for our students to share our school identity with our parish communities and to thank the parishioners for their spiritual and financial support. On Saturday (1/27) and Sunday (1/28), we will have student speakers, families bringing up the gifts, and students distributing the church bulletins following Mass. Please have your children wear their uniforms to church to show our school pride.

If your family would be available to bring up the gifts at a specific Mass, please email me at kwilliamson@stjstr.org and include parish & time. We will also need many children to distribute church bulletins. Please have your children go to an usher a few minutes prior to the end of Mass, and the usher will assign the student a location.

Looking forward to sharing our school pride with our community throughout the week! Thank you for all you do to promote our school!



Howdy Partner! The BOOK FAIR is COMING SOON! Be on the lookout for flyers and information to start coming home with your child in the next week!
Please visit Mrs. Jacobsen's website under the BOOK FAIR tab for more information regarding schedules and online volunteer sign up information.

CONGRATULATIONS! : Congratulations to Gianna Speranza and Hailey McDevitt whose essays were selected as among the winners of the Archbishop Wood Catholic Schools Week Essay Contest! They will read their essays at an assembly on Sunday January 28th at Archbishop Wood.

JUST A THOUGHT: This week marks the forty – fifth anniversary of the Roe v. Wade Supreme Court decision. Let's join our prayers with those of others across the country that as a nation we will adopt a Respect Life mindset – from conception until natural death!
