- Home and School meeting, January 19th: Mark your calendars now for this informative session! Business will be kept short to allow time for the speaker!

Parenting Your Child to Reach for the STARS

Every parent wants to raise a successful child. To effectively meet the inevitable challenges that life brings, children must develop resiliency at home, school, and with peers. In this workshop, Dr. Mary Coakley, Child and Family Psychologist, discusses how parents can promote resilience in their children and guide them towards personal and academic success. Using the acronym STARS, Dr. Coakley shares five facets of resilience: Self-control; Talents and gifts; healthy Attachments; Rejection of negativity; and Spirituality.

Parents will leave this presentation with new tools and ideas that can be implemented immediately.

CONGRATULATIONS, GRACE! : We have received word that Grace Moffett, grade 8, has been awarded a Presidential Scholarship from Archbishop Wood High School. Her $2500 award will be renewable for the four years she attends Archbishop Wood.

WEATHER RELATED INFORMATION: As we make our way through the winter months, I want our families to be aware of the following:

Should the weather cause a school closing or delayed opening, we will follow the decision made for the Central Bucks School District. I will send an email blast once I hear from the district. Too, if your child/ren are transported by any other district, keep an eye out for their decision. If Central Bucks is on a delay and others are not, you must provide transportation to the school. Our

AM CARES program will have a delayed opening should the school be delayed in opening.

FATHER/DAUGHTER DANCE: Mrs. Amy Dixon, mother of Maggie (Kindergarten) is hoping that about 4 to 5 more volunteers will come forward to help with event. She is also in need of a volunteer amateur photographer who would be willing to take pictures at the event. If you are willing/able to assist, please contact her directly:

JUST A THOUGHT: As we look toward the Martin Luther King Day holiday, much will be said about "a day of service". For all of us at SJR, I think service is more than a one day event. Our lives should be based on service. Let's remember the following words of Dr. King:
